FORMAL HIRE

Easy as 1, 2, 3...

When you look perfectly happy and relaxed in your clothes, they become part of you and not just something you've put on. Our three-step process is here to help you on your way.

1. NECKWEAR

Your neckwear colour should traditionally complement the bridal party colours (i.e. the bridesmaids' dresses and flowers). We've got a huge range of colours to choose from so take your time and pick the best one for your wedding. Most neckwear colours are available as a Ruche or a Tie and, in some instances, even a Bow Tie.

2. SUIT

Now choose a suit colour and style. Are you looking for something timeless, elegant, classic or modern? Whatever option you're going for, you've come to the right place. We've got Black, Blue, Grey and Navy and a choice of Slim Fits, Tailcoats, Prince Edwards or Short Jackets. The decision is yours.

3. WAISTCOAT

With over 25 designs to choose from, we've got you covered. From matching waistcoats to traditional Dove Grey, or sophisticated Ivory to stylish Tweed Check, pick a waistcoat to express yourself. Your groomsmen can wear the same design as you or they could have a slightly different one - either option will look great.

KNOW YOUR STUFF: The Best Man

The term 'best man' dates back to the times Scotsmen kidnapped their future brides. The friend of the groom who excelled at the abduction was acclaimed as the 'best man' - luckily times have changed!

The Tweed Collection

Tweed is a classic fabric that always impresses. Our range of Tweed waistcoats and matching neckwear and hankies will give your outfit that stylish touch.

Grey Slim Fit Tailcoat
Available in sizes 20S to 60XL

Blue Slim Fit Tailcoat
Available in sizes 20S to 60XL

KNOW YOUR STUFF: Tweed

The original name of the cloth was 'tweel'. Around 1831, a London merchant received a letter from a Hawick firm, Watson & Sons, Dangerfield Mills about some 'tweels'. The merchant misinterpreted the handwriting, understanding it to be a trade name taken from the River Tweed. The goods were subsequently advertised as Tweed and the name has remained since.

The Slim Fit Collection

If modern and elegant is your style, our Slim Fit Collection is where your search for an outfit stops.

KNOW YOUR STUFF: The Tailcoat

The historical reason coats were cut this way was to make it easier for the wearer to ride a horse. Over the years, tailcoats of varying types evolved into styles of formal dress for both day and evening wear.

The Navy Collection

Our Navy Collection is the perfect way to frame your outfit when matched with brightly coloured neckwear and contrasting waistcoats.

KNOW YOUR STUFF: Tying the knot

The origin of tying the knot comes from the Celtic (pagan) marriage ceremony of handfasting, where the hands of the bride and groom were tied together for a marriage 'contract' of one year plus one day that the newlyweds promised to stay together prior to the marriage becoming 'legal'.

Tie the knot

Most neckwear colours are available as a Ruche or a Tie and, in some instances, even a Bow Tie.

Little tip - consider something that will complement the bridal colour scheme when making your decision.

Boys

Whether it's a wedding, christening, graduation, prom or any other special occasion, our range of boys' suits allow the little man to look great at any event.

In fact, he'll probably end up stealing the show in a Burton Menswear Formal Hire suit!

How to Hire

Hire orders can also be placed directly online at burtonsuithire.co.uk

Use our Outfit Builder to create your perfect look and then book a FREE Home Try On. We'll deliver the outfit of your choice for a two-day trial in your own home, months before your function.

When you're happy with how your Home Try On outfit looks, feels and fits, you can then place your hire order online for you and all of your groomsmen - simply enter everyone's sizes online.

Hire order outfits are delivered to your home over a week before the function date so there's plenty of time for us to send out free replacement garments if something doesn't fit.

After the function, simply box up your suit in the original packaging and we will collect it for free. Easy.
